British Confirm Dropping Chute Troops In Italy

Declare Some Fulfilled
Mission, Escaped And Returned To Base

BULLETIN
Rome, Feb. 15.—It was reported here tonight that the United States has decided to close its consulates at Naples and Palermo at the request of Italian authorities.

BULLETIN
London, Feb. 15.—Following up a series of daylight sorties over England, German air raiders returned tonight, dark tonight. London had an early alert and planes also were reported over east and northeast Scotland. The weather over Dover strait was clear with full visibility.

Feb. 15 (UP)—British planes today had dropped parachute troops in southern Italy, and it was disclosed that some of them had fulfilled their mission and returned to base.

After 24 hours of complete silence, British reports of the parachute landing in southern Italy, which was a surprise, were made in a communiqué from the ministry of information.

Southern troops in the region of Salerno were reported to have been captured by parachute troops in southern Italy. Their instructions were to destroy certain objectives connected with ports in that area. No statement can be made at present about the results of operations but some troops have not returned to their base.

The implication was clear that the parachute detachment had been captured and returned to base. The planes had landed in the area of Salerno, and the northern troops were reported to have been captured.

First Military Attack
The first indication of a recent British military attack on Italy was the first military attack on the soil of Italy.

It had been known for many months that British troops selected for intelligence strength, endurance and intrepidity had been trained as parachutists.

The announcement of the landing of three full days ago, according to the Italian communiqué, was the first time that the parachutists had been reported to have been captured.

Convoy Afloat As Rescue Ship
Berlin, Feb. 15.—(AP)—The flotilla of German warships which has reported in the past two days sinking 14 British ships in one Atlantic convoy left one of the vessels afloat to serve as a rescue ship for crews of the others, D.N.B. official German news agency said today.

All the merchantmen were armed and defended themselves vigorously. The D.N.B. report said that some German ships fell close to the Germans, no German ship was hit.

A D.N.B. reporter aboard one of the German ships said that the fight was swift and that after the first 10 minutes five British ships were in sinking condition.

The attack started Sunday off Portugal. But D.N.B. did not indicate the exact position, nor did the agency's reporter disclose the types of warships which took part.

Presumably the one vessel left afloat was the German ship which was sighted by the German ships encountered a British freighter which had escaped from another convoy attacked in Portuguese waters.

Dr. J. B. Conant Heads Special Mission Abroad

Harvard President Will Study Technical Advances; War Equipment

Washington, Feb. 15.—President Roosevelt dispatched Dr. J. B. Conant, president of Harvard University, to England today as head of a special mission charged with studying directly to Washington technical advances and information of importance to national defense.

Other scientists will be given similar assignments from time to time, the White House announced.

Research Chemist
Dr. Conant, a research chemist, was scheduled to leave New York today for London on the first leg of his journey, accompanied by Frederick L. Hoyde, assistant to the president of the University of Rochester in New York state and Dr. Carroll L. Wilson, special liaison officer of the national defense research committee.

The Harvard president will be joined by the senate foreign relations committee Tuesday in support of the administration's British aid bill, thus joining the growing group of prominent American visitors to the beleaguered British Isles.

Among them, Harry L. Hopkins, whom the President sent as his personal envoy to London pending appointment of an ambassador, was homebound today. He stopped overnight at San Juan, Puerto Rico, where he was flown from Trinidad, B.W.I., plane when unfavorable weather delayed Pan American Yankee Clipper.

Winant Leaves Shortly
Hopkins' return apparently signaled the departure for London within a few days of John G. Winant, whom the President recently named ambassador. The appointment received Senate confirmation today.

Dr. Conant and Wilson, the White House said in a statement, will remain in England about a month and Hoyde will stay there as permanent secretary.

In this capacity Hoyde will represent the research committee and be in position to facilitate the work of the successive scientific groups visiting England.

Member of Committee
The Harvard president is a member of the administration's national defense research committee. One of his associates in that agency, commenting on the significance of the London assignment, said that heretofore information on the latest military devices had been exchanged indirectly by Britain and the United States through Canada.

"This will be the first time it will have been handled directly," he said.

Realtors Bid For 1941 State Convention

Members of the Kankakee real estate board voted at their meeting last night in McBroome's cafe to make a bid for the 1941 state convention of realtors in October. The convention attracts approximately 600. It was last held in Kankakee in 1924.

A convention committee was appointed including Harold Cooley, Glen Schneider and Leland Sprague, who will work in conjunction with the convention committee of the chamber of commerce.

Vernon McBroom, president of the commerce group, addressed the realtors on the 1941 program which they endorsed and Ron Henneken, secretary of the commerce chamber, spoke on housing conditions and discussed a city plan over a period of five years in which improvement of streets, annexation of suburbs, construction of sewer lines and modernizing of the business district have been made.

The board endorsed the five year plan and pledged its cooperation in trying to make Kankakee a better city in which to live.

Blended Price Of Milk Is Reduced

Producers in the Chicago market will receive a blended price of $1.73 per hundredweight for 3.5 per cent butterfat milk delivered in January. It was announced in Chicago today by A. W. Coleman, acting federal milk market administrator.

The blended price is computed from the prices handlers pay for milk in four classes of utilization. The January prices were $1.966 for class one, $1.666 for class two, $1.449 for class three and $1.265 for class four.

The blended price is 21 cents below that for December deliveries and is 10 cents less than the January, 1940, blended price.

The decrease was attributed largely to lower average prices in the Chicago market and the Plymouth, Wis., cheese markets upon which Chicago milk prices are based.

Ten of those receiving home care receive pneumo-thorax treatments two or three times a month at a cost of $5 per treatment. Cost of treatment for the others is small.

During January eight new patients were placed in sanitariums and three were discharged.

5 Investigations Under Way At Scene Of Blast

Cause Of Explosion Kih-
ing Seven Men Near Du Quoin Is A Mystery

DuQuoin, Ill., Feb. 15.—At least three separate investigations were under way today in the explosion that claimed the lives of seven employees of the United Electric Coal company's liquid oxygen plant at the DuQuoin mine near this city yesterday.

But Fred Huff, superintendent of the mine said the cause of the blast was as much a mystery as it was Friday. Besides the company's investigation, others were being conducted by Robert M. Medill, state director of mines and minerals, by Coroner W. E. Gladson and by insurance officials.

F. B. I. Enters Case
In addition it was known that agents of the federal bureau of investigation had entered the case but secrecy enveloped their activities.

All seven victims were instantly killed and there were no injured survivors to aid the investigators. Some of the men were unloading lamp black cartridges from a freight car on a siding a few feet from the plant. Others were working in the plant where the cartridges are soaked with liquid oxygen, converting them into explosives used in blasting coal and rock. Neither the lamp black nor the liquid oxygen is explosive by itself.

So far the investigation has not disclosed Huff said, whether the explosion occurred in the freight car which arrived Wednesday night from Coroner Gladson's plant. Both the car and the plant, a two-story frame building, were demolished.

$200,000 Damage
Huff said the property damage was "pretty close to $200,000." He disclosed that much of the plant equipment was manufactured in Germany and cannot be replaced at this time because of the war.

Meantime the mine's 275 employees were idle today as survivors of the victims prepared to bury the dead. Separate funerals tentatively are planned for all seven tomorrow.

Coroner Gladson's jury to investigate the deaths and announced an inquest probably will be held next week.

3 Youths Confess Attempt To Wreck Train In California

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 15.—UP—Federal bureau of investigation agents today questioned three bowling alley pun boys about a 1939 train wreck in which 24 persons were killed and 108 injured. They had confessed to trying to wreck a Southern Pacific passenger train last Saturday after their note demanding $50,000 was ignored.

They are Bernal, Culler, Carter, 20, whom the FBI said confessed the wreck at Philadelphia in 1938. Kenneth Alexander, Lennon, 20, and Owen Bertram, M. Henry, 33. Nat J. L. Pieper, San Francisco FBI director, said they confessed removing 44 spikes from Southern Pacific tracks 68 miles east of Sacramento. A track wacker destroyed the sabotage a few hours before the westbound Pacific limited passed and repaired the damage.

These three individuals also have admitted they attempted to extort $50,000 from the Southern Pacific company on Jan. 16, 1941 under threat of property to the railroad company's property. If their demands were not met, Pieper said.

The wreck about which they were questioned was that of the streamlined Southern Pacific passenger train wreck in which 24 persons were killed and 108 injured. They had confessed to trying to wreck a Southern Pacific passenger train last Saturday after their note demanding $50,000 was ignored.

To Participate In "New Order" For Europe

Her basic Raw Materials
Demanded By Hitler
For War Industries

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Yugoslavia's premier and foreign minister arrived at noon today from Germany, where they held a three-hour conference with Adolf Hitler yesterday, and went immediately to report to Prince Paul, the regent.

Both Premier Dragisa Cvetkovic and Foreign Minister Aleksander Cincar-Markovic declined to make a statement, but sources close to the premier earlier had indicated that Yugoslavia probably would adopt a course more in accord with German wishes.

From the station the two statesmen drove directly to the palace, where they lunched with Prince Paul.

German Terms Submitted
The premier and foreign minister talked with Hitler and German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop for three hours yesterday at Berchtesgaden, and informed quarters here today they were believed to have been given terms designed to keep Yugoslavia out of war but probably calling for active participation in the Nazis' "new order" for Europe.

The regency council, an informant said, will meet in a few days to discuss these terms and formulate Yugoslavia's answer. The exact content of the terms is not known.

A communiqué giving the first knowledge that the premier and foreign minister had arrived in Berlin, said they had arrived there after a long journey. The communiqué also stated that the two ministers had been in contact with German officials in Berlin.

Essential Materials
A similar communiqué was issued in Berlin, where informed sources asserted today that closer economic cooperation between Yugoslavia and Germany was an important topic on the agenda, together with important political questions.

They emphasized that Yugoslavia's copper and especially her bauxite—one of the basic raw materials for manufacture of aluminum—are essential for Germany's war industry. The consensus in German political circles was that Yugoslavia had broken away from English ties and moved closer to Germany and Italy, "apparently having realized that the future of the country depended on more intimate cooperation with the axis powers."

Relations "Cordial"
Berlin, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Authorized German commentators today said only that German-Yugoslav relations were "most cordial" after Adolf Hitler's conversations yesterday with Premier Dragisa Cvetkovic and Foreign Minister Aleksander Cincar-Markovic.

There were no indications whether there had been negotiations to pre-

Former German Says Hitler Believes Lies Justified

Europe's new order after this war will be a unity in the form of "a United States of Europe" predicted Dr. Reinhold Schairer, former German citizen but now a naturalized British subject and professor at the University of London, last night in a talk at Olivet college.

This new order in Europe will have to come because 18,000,000 men will be on the street when Hitler breaks down, stated Dr. Schairer. The English have been planning a "peaceful peace" since the beginning of the war based on a unity in Europe.

Italians Flee Before South African Troops

Port Of Chisimio In Somaliland Occupied By The British

By RICHARD D. McILLAN
Cairo, Feb. 15.—(U.P.)—The British high command today reported that Italian Somaliland had been occupied by British troops in a slugging offensive into Italian Somaliland which occupied the important port of Chisimio, second largest in the colony.

The capture of Chisimio opened up the possibility of British drive up the Italian coast which, if successful, would place all Italian Somaliland in British hands and enable the imperial forces to re-occupy British Somaliland.

The middle east command reported that South African troops had captured guns, armored vehicles and personnel at Chisimio.

"If Chisimio harbor," the command said, "was captured, the middle east command said, it would be a great success."

The South African force and the Italian navy, the command said, cooperated with the land troops who cut across Italian Somaliland in the night.

The high command reported that a count of war materials captured in the battle south of Beignash showed that 100 field guns, two heavy anti-aircraft guns and 20 light anti-aircraft guns fell into British hands.

"Prisoners and other war material are still being counted," the middle east command said.

A drive by British troops into Ethiopia in the night, the command said, was reported.

It was reported that the British had captured the port of Chisimio, a strategic point in the Italian empire.

These points are close to the Sudan border in the north and the Nile delta in the south.

Italian reinforcements were reported to be moving into the area.

The British are believed to be preparing for a possible Italian counter-offensive.

It was believed that Italian reinforcements had been ordered to the area.

BRADLEY CAPTURES FOURTH STRAIGHT VALLEY CROWN

Leahy Makes 'Financial Sacrifice' to Take N.D. Job

Promises He'll Match Layden's Grid Success

By BILL KING
Boston, Feb. 14.—Frank Leahy may be stepping into the toughest spot in football by returning to Notre Dame, but the coach who succeeds him at Boston College should be able to give him a stiff argument on that score.

"I am not entertaining any hopes that I will be able to come anywhere near the record set by Rockwell, our old master," Leahy said. "But I think we will be able to match the success Elmer Layden enjoyed during his tenure at Notre Dame."

Stunned By Decision
Meanwhile, Boston College authorities are so stunned by their unexpected blow that it will be some time before they get around to engaging a new coaching staff. About the only redeeming feature, from their point of view, is the prospect of having Notre Dame two or three years hence.

"As athletic director, I'll arrange all of Notre Dame's future schedules," Leahy pointed out. "And there is no reason why B. C. should be one of our rivals. But despite my affection for Boston College, I wouldn't bear to have it defeat Notre Dame."

Tal Hainey Mentioned
First to be mentioned as Leahy's successor was Pat Hainey of Boston university, a Walden system tutor, and Adam Walsh of Bowdoin, whose methods would be familiar to the Eagles' many brilliant holders. Both of these coaches, however, are well established, and Boston College has enjoyed such great success under previously tutored coaches that it probably will be tempted to try another assistant from one of the major college staffs.

Regardless of who the next B. C. coach will be, the financial side of Boston college football will be much brighter for him than it was when Leahy broke in. Back in 1939, when Leahy was hired away from Fordham, B. C.'s athletic budget was about $175,000 in the "red." Thanks to two successful seasons and 115 all-star players, it now stands at $250,000. Boston college no longer is forced to skimp on its athletic budget.

7 Champions Back For Relay Show At Illinois Tonight
Champaign, Ill., Feb. 15.—Many of the Midwest's finest sprinters, distance runners and jumpers will compete for honors tonight in the Illinois relay carnival, largest indoor track meet in the country.

College relays, preliminary heats and the all-around championship are set for the afternoon, but major events involving top-flight runners will be held tonight.

Seven individual champions are back for another try, including Myron Piller, Northwestern, 73-yard dash; Don Olsen, Illinois, 100-yard hurdles; Gene Little, Nebraska, 300-yard run; Les Eberhart, Ohio State, 1000-yard run; Len Lenozer, Loyola (Chicago), 1500-meter run; Don Cuthbert, Michigan, high jump; and Harold Hunt, Nebraska, who tied for first in the pole vault.

Michigan, Indiana and Notre Dame are among the schools best represented by talented relay squads. The meet should furnish some indication of Michigan's strength in next season. The Wolverines have rolled up seven straight Big Ten indoor titles and four straight championships outdoors.

Hoppe Captures Cue Title, Feb. 15, $3,000
Chicago, Feb. 15.—It's about time for Willie Hoppe to change his identification tag from "Boy Wonder" to "Old Man River."

The 33-year-old New York cue wizard still is king of all he surveys in three-cushion billiards after laying his title on the line twice in five weeks, meanwhile recovering from a deep of influenza and pneumonia.

Willie won his first cue title in 1905. Last night he captured his second straight three-cushion championship with a crushing 20 to 24 victory over his arch rival, Jake Schuster, in 39 minutes. This was his 18th victory in 17 matches in the month-long round-robin battle, which began Tuesday and ended with three losses for second place.

The tournament drew an estimated aggregate of 45,000 customers. Hoppe's share of the purse being shared about $3,000.

Joe Bozeman of Vallejo, Calif., finished third, and Walker Crocker fourth.

Bob Sieder, Buffalo Evening News: "The airplane have given Bob Peller a place for being in the air 10,000 miles. American league clubs would like to duplicate the award for the summer months."

On an average winter day, it is estimated that 600,000 men, women and children are in the hospital in some form of illness or injury.

Notre Dame's New Football Coaching Staff

By REV. R. J. WROUGHTON

Trinity Methodist Church
DID YOU RECEIVE GOD'S VALENTINE?

Yesterday, Feb. 14, was St. Valentine's day. The day was so named after St. Valentine who was bishop of Rome during the third century. St. Valentine was a man of exceptionally sweet and amiable spirit and possessed remarkable gifts of eloquence. He was so devoted to Christianity and to so many pagans of Rome to this new faith that he incurred the displeasure of Emperor Claudius, was imprisoned, and finally put to death Feb. 14, 306 A. D. When the names of the saints were put in the calendar, his name was given to that day on which he met martyrdom.

I do not know what valentine you may have received yesterday, but I do hope that you did not miss receiving God's valentine of love. We human beings sometimes feel that we know all there is to know about love. But our love is a rope of sand compared with the love of God for us. But how should God express that love for us today? What form will God's valentine take? Well, He sends His own Son with a message. An angel choir escorts Him to the threshold of the world. He comes to proclaim good news—the Gospel. Peace on earth—good will to men. It is a valentine of love to common folk, who generally know little and care less for hair-splitting theology and religious controversy. Not everyone can understand the theology, but everyone, even a child, can understand love.

God Loves All

So God sent the Christ, and Christ told the poor, weary, sin-sick multitude that God loved humanity—that God was on their side. In the villages, in houses, in dusty synagogues, along the mountain sides, by the highways and hedges, from the boat's bow, at the Sea of Galilee to the crowds sitting on the sand, He told of God's love. To the publican and sinner—He told of God's love. To the blind man cast out of the synagogue, and the scarlet girl cast out of society—He told of God's love.

The Twelve went forth carrying the same message. And then the Seventy went forth, two by two, into village and country—with the Gospel. Afterward the apostles and the early church went forth, carrying the good news. It is easy to tell the good news. When the schoolboy passes his examination, when the young lover gets the hoped-for answer, when the young girl becomes engaged, when the baby cuts its first tooth, when you get a raise in salary, when leaves come and money—it is hard to keep still—it is easy to tell good news!

The messenger of the street comes down the streets and highways of today bearing the sacred message of love, and a heart that is pierced for love's sake. He stops at every door and every street. This sacred message is for all. After all is said and done, human social distinctions are largely artificial—there is no monopoly of virtue or vice to rich or poor, and the good news is to everyone—“Whosoever.”

Goodness is Deep

The good news tells that man is divine. The deepest thing in us is not devil, but angel. The future is not black and hopeless, but shot through with golden threads of glory. The bad can be made good; the good can be made better. You and I have come far short of what God has expected of us. We have transgressed the laws of God and our fellows. That's the meaning of the story of the prodigal son! Dear wanderer, I've a valentine from home for you. You thought you were unforgotten, forgotten, forsaken? I've good news—“Let the wicked forsake his ways, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and unto God, for He will abundantly pardon.”

We live in a busy world full of solid facts, hard realities, crushing competition, sentiment-dulling materialism. I am always glad for the coming of St. Valentine's day. If I do not have to brush a tear away before the day is over then I know that this preacher-writer is growing old. And if I don't get a valentine from anyone else on St. Valentine's day, I am always sure of getting one from God. And here is the very heart of God's valentine message—It is written in John 3:16—“God so loved—” But you must open the envelope and read the love message for yourself. It is for you! It is God's valentine of love for His children of earth. After you read it you And God, who is a God of love, will smile and understand.

Sunday school at 9:00 a. m. William Shreffler, superintendent. We have some new Sunday school song books. He on time for the song service.

Morning worship at 9:45 a. m. This will be a communion service. We invite all who love the Lord to the Lord's table regardless of denomination. This will be a helpful service following the ritual in the new Methodist hymnal.

Choir practice on Wednesday evening. We have a fine girls' choir. At Bradley that helps greatly in the worship service. Regularity of attendance at practice and at church adds greatly to its value.

The training class will not meet this week as the pastor expects to be attending the Religious Education Institute at Decatur on Wednesday and Thursday. We will have another session on Feb. 26 at which time we hope all our teachers and officers can be present.

Mr. Wadleigh has kindly offered to give us space for church announcements and items in the Bradley Times. Beginning next week we expect to have something of interest about the church in that paper.
